EVENING SERVICE

On Sunday evening, July 29, Rev. W. R. Lake of Kincardine United Church conducted the church service on MacIntyre Square.

AT SERVICE

Following the church service, guests and beach people gathered in the Recreation Hall for the Sing-Song. The highlight of the evening came when Bill Cole, who is with the Stratford Shakespearean Festival favoured us with two solos "The Blind Ploughman" and "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings".

INTEREST IN TOURNAMENT

One of the leading entertainments featured at the Lime Kiln Lodge is tournaments. Last week our guests were very enthusiastic and both seniors and juniors participated in Cribbage, Ping-Pong, Badminton, Golf, Horseshoes, Canasta, Tennis, Bridge, Checkers and Euchre. The various winners of these tournaments are presented with an engraved silver cup at the dinner hour on Friday evening.

CHILDREN DISPLAY TALENTS

Preceding the films, an interesting and entertaining hour was spent in the Recreation Hall on Wednesday evening when the children displayed their various talents. Mr. Martin set up the "mike" and the children thoroughly enjoyed being allowed the privilege of using this for their programme.

DEPARTING GUESTS

For some Saturday means the commencement of their Lime Kiln stay; for others it means time to say good bye for another year. Those who took their departure included Miss Jeanette Heinhuis, Ruthven, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stratton, London, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelch and family, Windsor, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kingsley and family, Grosse Pt. Woods, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Schweitzer and family, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Patterson and family, Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. C. Maxwell and family, Cardington, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Foreman and family, Toronto, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallis and family, St. Catharines, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Hopper, London, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Clare Ridsdale and family, Galt, Ont.

SQUARE DANCING POPULAR

Lime Kiln guests were ready and waiting in the recreation hall — the big attraction being Square Dancing directed by Mr. and Mrs. Martin. For some it was their first evening of this type of dancing, and certainly no one needed to be told how much every one was enjoying himself for the sounds of merriment spoke for themselves! Also, Friday night the guests returned in full force to enjoy another evening of fun.

CRAZY HAT NIGHT

This week brought a change in our Crazy Hat Night. We decided to have a definite theme, and chose for our first venture the title of a book. All hats very well represented the chosen book. The winners this week included: "Cricker" Kingsley and Gordon Ridsdale representing Robin Hood. Betty Barnard representing The Gift of the Sea; Morrow representing Lost Week-end; Stuart Kelch representing The Egg and I.

STUNT NIGHT

To get our evening's entertainment under way, Mr. Martin showed coloured slides of the Lime Kiln. These included both the Lodge itself and the grounds in summer and winter, and the sunsets for which Inverhuron is famous. These were very interesting and perhaps made some of us who have taken the beauty of the Lime Kiln for granted realize what a scenic spot it is!

We indeed felt honoured to have with us the magician "Sir Hindu" in the person of Leonard Wallis. Sir Hindu presented some tricks which were appreciated by all. Several contests were held including an Orange Relay, Jello Eating Contest, A Whistling Contest, and A Cap Game. I think the two most enjoyed by the audience included the Cap Game in which Waft Kingsley, George Morrow and A. I. Wallis tried to keep a cap on each head. As the difference in height varied considerably this proved very amusing. The Jello Eating Contest consisted of Mrs. Parry, Mrs. Schweitzer and Mrs. Maxwell feeding jello to Mr. Morrow, Mr. Kelch and Mr. MacFarlane by holding the spoon between their teeth.

MONDAY NIGHT HAYRIDE

Monday night brought with it the familiar sounds of hay wagons and happy voices. Although from the appearance of the sky rain seemed near, our spirits were gay as we climbed on board. This was our third hay ride and there were more people took the opportunity of enjoying it!

Nine-thirty found us returning to the Lodge. How glad we were to see the beautiful fire on the beach. Also the hot dogs were ready and believe me, we certainly enjoyed the n.
